Re: Plea Agreement with Adam Curtis Williams

16 CR 502

Dear Mr. O'Malley:

This letter sets forth the plea agreement between your client, Adam Curtis Williams, and the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey ("this Office"). The government's offer to enter into this plea agreement will expire on August 5, 2016 if it is not accepted in writing by that date.

Charge

Conditioned on the understandings specified below, this Office will accept a guilty plea from Adam Curtis Williams to the one-count Information that charges that Adam Curtis Williams possessed a shank while incarcerated at the Fairton Federal Correctional Institution in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1791(a)(2) and 1791(b)(3). If Adam Curtis Williams enters a guilty plea and is sentenced on this charge, and otherwise fully complies with all of the terms of this agreement, this Office will not initiate any further criminal charges against Adam Curtis Williams for his possession of a shank at the Fairton Federal Correctional Institution on May 26, 2015. However, in the event that a guilty plea in this matter is not entered for any reason or the judgment of conviction entered as a result of this guilty plea does not remain in full force and effect, Adam Curtis Williams agrees that any dismissed charges and any other charges that are not time-barred by the applicable statute of limitations on the date this agreement is signed by Adam Curtis Williams may be commenced against him, notwithstanding the expiration of the limitations period after Adam Curtis Williams signs the agreement.

Sentencing

The violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1791(a)(2) to which Adam Curtis Williams agrees to plead guilty carries a statutory maximum prison sentence of 5 years and a statutory maximum fine equal to the greatest of: (1) $250,000, or (2) twice the gross amount of any pecuniary gain that any persons derived from the offense, or (3) twice the gross amount of any pecuniary loss sustained by any victims of the offense. Fines imposed by the sentencing judge may be subject to the payment of interest.

The sentence to be imposed upon Adam Curtis Williams is within the sole discretion of the sentencing judge, subject to the provisions of the Sentencing Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. §§ 3551-3742, and the sentencing judge's consideration of the United States Sentencing Guidelines. The United States Sentencing Guidelines are advisory, not mandatory. The sentencing judge may impose any reasonable sentence up to and including the statutory maximum term of imprisonment and the maximum statutory fine. This Office cannot and does not make any representation or promise as to what guideline range may be found by the sentencing judge, or as to what sentence Adam Curtis Williams ultimately will receive.

Further, in addition to imposing any other penalty on Adam Curtis Williams, the sentencing judge: (1) will order Adam Curtis Williams to pay an assessment of $100 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3013, which assessment must be paid by the date of sentencing; (2) may order Adam Curtis Williams to pay restitution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663 et seq.; and (3) pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583, may require Adam Curtis Williams to serve a term of supervised release of not more than 3 years, which will begin at the expiration of any term of imprisonment imposed. Should Adam Curtis Williams be placed on a term of supervised release and subsequently violate any of the conditions of supervised release before the expiration of its term, Adam Curtis Williams may be sentenced to not more than 2 years' imprisonment in addition to any prison term previously imposed, regardless of the statutory maximum term of imprisonment set forth above and without credit for time previously served on post-release supervision, and may be sentenced to an additional term of supervised release.

Rights of This Office Regarding Sentencing

Except as otherwise provided in this agreement, this Office reserves its right to take any position with respect to the appropriate sentence to be imposed on Adam Curtis Williams by the sentencing judge, to correct any misstatements relating to the sentencing proceedings, and to provide the sentencing judge and the United States Probation Office all law and information relevant to sentencing, favorable or otherwise. In addition, this Office may inform the sentencing judge and the United States Probation Office of: (1) this agreement; and (2) the full nature and extent of Adam Curtis Williams's activities and relevant conduct with respect to this case.

Stipulations

This Office and Adam Curtis Williams agree to stipulate at sentencing to the statements set forth in the attached Schedule A, which hereby is made a part of this plea agreement. This agreement to stipulate, however, cannot and does not bind the sentencing judge, who may make independent factual findings and may reject any or all of the stipulations entered into by the parties. To the extent that the parties do not stipulate to a particular fact or legal conclusion, each reserves the right to argue the existence of and the effect of any such fact or conclusion upon the sentence. Moreover, this agreement to stipulate on the part of this Office is based on the information and evidence that this Office possesses as of the date of this agreement. Thus, if this Office obtains or receives additional evidence or information prior to sentencing that it determines to be credible and to be materially in conflict with any stipulation in the attached Schedule A, this Office shall not be bound by any such stipulation. A determination that any stipulation is not binding shall not release either this Office or Adam Curtis Williams from any other portion of this agreement, including any other stipulation. If the sentencing court rejects a stipulation, both parties reserve the right to argue on appeal or at post-sentencing proceedings that the sentencing court was within its discretion and authority to do so. These stipulations do not restrict this Office's right to respond to questions from the Court and to correct misinformation that has been provided to the Court.

Waiver of Appeal and Post-Sentencing Rights

As set forth in Schedule A, this Office and Adam Curtis Williams waive certain rights to file an appeal, collateral attack, writ, or motion after sentencing, including but not limited to an appeal under 18 U.S.C. § 3742 or a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255.

Immigration Consequences

Adam Curtis Williams understands that, if he is not a citizen of the United States, his guilty plea to the charged offense will likely result in his being subject to immigration proceedings and removed from the United States by making him deportable, excludable, or inadmissible, or ending his naturalization. Adam Curtis Williams understands that the immigration consequences of this plea will be imposed in a separate proceeding before the immigration authorities. Adam Curtis Williams wants and agrees to plead guilty to the charged offense regardless of any immigration consequences of this plea, even if this plea will cause his removal from the United States. Adam Curtis Williams understands that he is bound by his guilty plea regardless of any immigration consequences of the plea. Accordingly, Adam Curtis Williams waives any and all challenges to his guilty plea and to his sentence based on any immigration consequences, and agrees not to seek to withdraw his guilty plea, or to file a direct appeal or any kind of collateral attack challenging his guilty plea, conviction, or sentence, based on any immigration consequences of his guilty plea.

Other Provisions

This agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey and cannot bind other federal, state, or local authorities. However, this Office will bring this agreement to the attention of other prosecuting offices, if requested to do so.

This agreement was reached without regard to any civil or administrative matters that may be pending or commenced in the future against Adam Curtis Williams. This agreement does not prohibit the United States, any agency thereof (including the Internal Revenue Service) or any third party from initiating or prosecuting any civil or administrative proceeding against Adam Curtis Williams.

No provision of this agreement shall preclude Adam Curtis Williams from pursuing in an appropriate forum, when permitted by law, an appeal, collateral attack, writ, or motion claiming that Adam Curtis Williams received constitutionally ineffective assistance of counsel.

No Other Promises

This agreement constitutes the plea agreement between Adam Curtis Williams and this Office and supersedes any previous agreements between them. No additional promises, agreements, or conditions have been made or will be made unless set forth in writing and signed by the parties.

Very truly yours,

PAUL J. FISHMAN
United States Attorney

Plea Agreement With Adam Curtis Williams

Schedule A

1. This Office and Adam Curtis Williams recognize that the United States Sentencing Guidelines are not binding upon the Court. This Office and Adam Curtis Williams nevertheless agree to the stipulations set forth herein, and agree that the Court should sentence Adam Curtis Williams within the Guidelines range that results from the total Guidelines offense level set forth below. This Office and Adam Curtis Williams further agree that neither party will argue for the imposition of a sentence outside the Guidelines range that results from the agreed total Guidelines offense level.

2. The version of the United States Sentencing Guidelines effective November 1, 2015 applies in this case. The applicable guideline is U.S.S.G. § 2P1.2.

3. This guideline carries a Base Offense Level of 13 because the defendant possessed a weapon (other than a firearm or a destructive device). U.S.S.G. § 2P1.2(a)(2).

4. As of the date of this letter, Adam Curtis Williams has clearly demonstrated a recognition and affirmative acceptance of personal responsibility for the offense charged. Therefore, a downward adjustment of 2 levels for acceptance of responsibility is appropriate if Adam Curtis Williams's acceptance of responsibility continues through the date of sentencing. See U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1(a).

5. In accordance with the above, the parties agree that the total Guidelines offense level applicable to Adam Curtis Williams is 11 (the "agreed total Guidelines offense level").

6. Adam Curtis Williams reserves the right to move for a reduced sentence pursuant to the relevant factors outlined in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a). This Office reserves the right to oppose any such application. The parties otherwise agree not to seek or argue for any upward or downward departure, adjustment or variance not set forth herein. The parties further agree that a sentence within the Guidelines range that results from the agreed total Guidelines offense level is reasonable.

7. Adam Curtis Williams knows that he has and, except as noted below in this paragraph, voluntarily waives, the right to file any appeal, any collateral attack, or any other writ or motion, including but not limited to an appeal under 18 U.S.C. § 3742 or a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255, which challenges the sentence imposed by the sentencing court if that sentence falls within or below the Guidelines range that results from the agreed total Guidelines offense level of 11. This Office will not file any appeal, motion, or writ which challenges the sentence imposed by the sentencing court if that sentence falls within or above the Guidelines range that results from the agreed total Guidelines offense level of 11. The parties reserve any right they may have under 18 U.S.C. § 3742 to appeal the sentencing court's determination of the criminal history category. The provisions of this paragraph are binding on the parties even if the Court employs a Guidelines analysis different from that stipulated to herein. Furthermore, if the sentencing court accepts a stipulation, both parties waive the right to file an appeal, collateral attack, writ, or motion claiming that the sentencing court erred in doing so.

8. Both parties reserve the right to oppose or move to dismiss any appeal, collateral attack, writ, or motion barred by the preceding paragraph and to file or to oppose any appeal, collateral attack, writ or motion not barred by the preceding paragraph.
